Nancy Whyte Announces Betrothal To Robert Work

Families of two Southland newspaper publishers were linked Monday with the betrothal of Nancy Ann Whyte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Whyte of Torrance, to Robert E. Work, son of Mr. and Mrs. Telford Work of Pacific Palisades.

The romantic news was revealed at a tea Monday afternoon in the Whyte home, 1620 Post Ave., when guests were given miniature "certificate of marriage" scrolls tied with white ribbons. The wedding is planned for late autumn.

Honored guests at the tea were three classmates of Miss Whyte from Mills College, Oakland. The girls, friends of the honoree since freshman days, were Misses Shirley Hambrook of San Francisco, Marilyn Mitchell of Wenatchee, Wash. and Sonia Schneider of Table Rock Estates, Ore.

The bride-elect, a music major at Mills, will graduate in June with the Centennial Class of '52. She is academic head of Mary Morse Hall on the campus and active in musical and social committee work.

The future benedict received his B.A. in government at Pomona College and his M.A. in Journalism from UCLA. A member of Kappa Theta Epsilon at Pomona, he is editor of the Los Angeles Daily (law) Journal and business manager of City News Service, Los Angeles.

Following his studies at UCLA, Mr. Work studied at the National University of Mexico and did further graduate work at Mexico City College. In 1948 he attended the Mexican provincial press convention at Torreon, representing Baja California. On two occasions the young editor represented the American press at Chiapas, Mex. In recent years he has traveled extensively in Western Europe.

The prospective bridegroom is in the Air Force reserve. He received a direct commission as a combat intelligence officer two years ago.

The bride-elect's father, Grover C. Whyte, has been publisher of the Torrance Herald for the past 30 years. Telford Work, father of the future bridegroom, is owner of City News Service in Los Angeles, manager of the Los Angeles Newspaper Service Bureau and publisher of the Los

Next Week Is Health Week

"World Health and Security Through Family Health and Maternity" is the theme of the eighth annual Health Week for Los Angeles County, Feb. 17-24. Dr. Ruth Temple, head of the special services division, Los Angeles City Health Dept., is chairman of the better-health observance.

Highlight of the week will be Community Health Day Feb. 20, when Los Angeles 10th District PTA will join with other sponsoring groups in an all-day conference and leadership luncheon at the Biltmore Hotel.

Health chairmen from each community and unit in the district will be among those attending.

Fanny McEnroe Review Scheduled For Monday

There's a treat in store for Torrance men and women Monday evening when Fanny McEnroe presents the second in her series of humorous, dramatized book reviews at 8 o'clock in the Woman's Club.

Sponsored by the club, the talk is open to all at a nominal cost. Refreshments will follow the talk and all ticketholders are entitled to bring a guest.

Keynote speaker will be Dr. Stafford Warren, dean of the UCLA Medical School.

Dinner-Dance Of SC Alumni Is Tonight

More than 100 couples from the South Bay area are expected tonight by the Trojan Alumni Club of this area. Palos Verdes Country Club will be the scene of the event which begins at 7 p.m.

Decorations, instead of following a traditional Valentine's day theme, will carry out colors of USC, cardinal and gold.

Dr. Paul Husted of Palos Verdes, Estates, president of the group, is directing the event. Honored guests will include Mrs. Hill, Trojan football coach, Mrs. Hill, Arnold Eddy, executive director of the USC Alumni Association, and Mrs. Eddy.

Reservations for the affair are being handled by Dr. Murray Schultz of 723 S. Catalina St., Redondo Beach.

Treskes Brothers Visit Mother in Grand Rapids

Winery Grand Rapids, Mich. last week welcomed Jack Treskes of 2815 W. Carson St. and his brother, Henry, of Los Angeles. The men left California by train Monday to visit their 83 year old mother, and will return to the west coast Feb. 25. Mrs. Treskes came to this country a few years ago from her native city, Rotterdam, Holland.

Debate Slated For PTA Meet

"You Can't Do Today's Job With Views of Yesterday," is the topic of debate to be given by the students in the speech department of the Torrance High School, at the meeting Tuesday of the Torrance Council PTA at the Episcopal Church, 1432 Engracia Ave. at 10 a.m.

A musical interlude will be provided by the original woman's kitchen band of Walteria PTA.

Founder's Day will be observed, introductions of past presidents will be made and election of 1952-53 Torrance Council PTA officers will take place.

Woman Judge To Address PTA Tonight

Youth problems, a subject of vital interest to all parents, will be discussed at 7:30 tonight by Judge Ida May Adams. Judge Adams will be guest speaker at the Founder's Day meeting of Fern Ave.-Greenwood PTA in the school cafeteria.

Well qualified to speak on this topic, Judge Adams has been a jurist for many years and is a former teacher and school administrator. She and her mother founded the Adams School for underprivileged children.

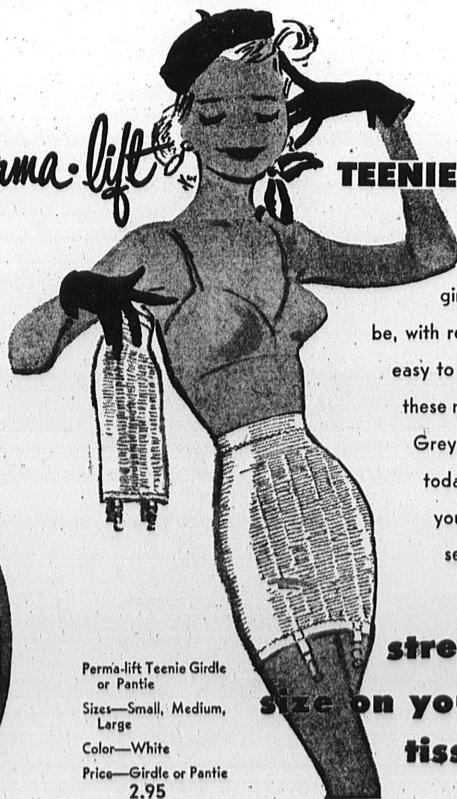

All persons interested are invited to the conclave. A nursery will be available in the kindergarten.

Fern Ave.-Greenwood PTA will sponsor a paper drive Feb. 23, with proceeds going to the Dental Clinic fund.

Mrs. G. G. Grubb has announced that the recent Mother's March on Polo of Fern Ave.-Greenwood PTA netted $800. Mrs. J. B. Miles and Mrs. C. La Verne Jones headed the 58 women who participated in the collection. Mothers from Catholic Daughters, Nativity School, Woman's Club and Torrance High School assisted.

month in Torrance Elementary School auditorium. The February meeting will be on the 29th because of a holiday on the fourth Friday.
